EATONIA OASIS LIVING DECEMBER NEWS

December has been a busy month, filled with family, friends and fun! We enjoyed our usual activities of baking, playing the Wii, morning exercises and work bee. We had Ice Cream Sundaes...a favorite treat, even in December! The residents enjoyed games of shuffleboard and balloon badminton, as well as being pampered by manicures. We must not forget our weekly Bingos! Thank you to Amanda Longmuir and Brenda Simon for helping out with them. The crowd can get pretty rowdy when their number doesn't get called! We also plan on making cabbage rolls with some students from Eaton School. Thanks to Lynn Assmus and Gail Morgan for organizing this and to Becky Hiebert and Amanda Longmuir for lending a hand. Around the care home, the staff and residents have been getting into the Christmas Spirit by decorating the home, playing Christmas music and baking cookies. The Christmas tree in the activity room is decorated with ornaments the residents have made this year, and in years past. Thank you to Marie Smith for helping with this. It brings back many memories of years gone by! We have had a lot of entertainment this month. The United Church Sunday School class preformed their Christmas Pageant for us and handed out gifts following. We would like to thank all the children for the great performance, along with Marie Smith, Candice Connolly, Lindsay Larock and Vicki Oomen for volunteering their time to bring a little Christmas Joy to the residents! We also thoroughly enjoyed the music of A.J. Nobbs. He spent the afternoon with us, singing some old country western songs and Christmas carols. We hope you will come back again, A.J.!

There was only one birthday to celebrate this month, and that was Annie Warrington. She was in the hospital for the party at E.O.L. on the 15th, but had over 30 people here for a family supper. Happy Birthday, Annie! We did go ahead and have a Christmas Party hosted by the United Church Ladies. We enjoyed the music of Audrey Newton! It was wonderful!

The ladies even surprised each resident with a Christmas Gift. Thank you so much! We must not forget to mention all the volunteers from the churches who make time in their busy lives to provide our weekly service. This is very important to the residents. Once again, we thank you.

We would like to ask any individuals or groups that would like to volunteer at the home please call Vicki or Cora at 967-2447.
