RECOGNIZING COLD WEATHER EMERGENCIES

FROSTBITE

Frostnip 1ST Degree (superficial)	Only top layer of skin freezes, tips of ear, nose, finger etc. Loss of sensation and feeling to area. Firm to touch, pale. Pain on rewarming when thawing. Generally Frostnip isn't serious and is easily cured when removed from cold. Warm area gradually with warm water, not hot and avoid rubbing.
Frostbite 2nd Degree (partial thickness)	Affects first and second layer of skin. Blisters may appear up to 2 days after. Skin feels hard, waxy, pale and numb. Usually permanent damage is avoided if treated properly. Remove from cold, gradually warm area using body heat or warm water. Don't rub area, and do not thaw area out if chance of refreezing is possible.
Frostbite 3rd Degree (Full thickness)	Involves all layers of skin, and tissues beneath including nerves and tendons. Hard, numb, waxy, pale skin Use of area is decreased or lost temporarily or permanently. Purple blisters that turn black and are blood filled appear, tissue death may be seen. Permanent damage will result. Remove from cold; Do not thaw if chance of refreezing is possible. Get person to hospital as surgery and amputation is possible.
Treatment Facts to remember:	Massaging or rubbing frozen areas may cause ice crystals in skin to cause more damage. Warm only, remember frozen areas cannot feel hot water or air, and may cause burns. Always remove person from cold, try not to move limb once thawing has started. Seek medical help if needed.

HYPOTHERMIA

Mild hypothermia Stage 1 (34-36° c) body temp.	Person feels cold, Goose bumps, shivering, decrease in movement person may anger easily, increased heart rate Remove person from cold, remove wet damp clothing, cover with blanket, drink warm fluids if not nauseated
Moderate Hypothermia Stage 2 (32-34° c) body temp.	Shivering, person becomes more agitated, slurred speech, uncoordinated, slow and labored movement, stumbling, falling, mild confusion, not rational (think they're hot). Person becomes pale, lips, fingers and toes may be blue Remove from cold, remove wet or damp clothes, cover with blankets, and drink warm fluids if not nauseated. Handle person with care. Seek medical help
Severe Hypothermia Stage 3 (less than 32° c) body temp.	Shivering stops, impossible to move, confusion, unresponsive to unconsciousness, decreased heart rate, and breathing Remove from cold, remove wet or damp clothes, and cover with blankets. Handle person with care. Seek immediate medical help! This is Life threatening!

Most hypothermia-related deaths are preventable

Things that affect the body temperature:

Air temperature, Alcohol & Drugs, Humidity, wind, clothing, activity, fluid intake, age, other health conditions.
So when heading out in our cold environment, remember to bundle up in layers, Cover fingers, ears and toes. Prepare your vehicle for winter traveling (emergency kit, shovel, blanket, food, etc.). Let someone know where you are going and when to expect you back. Keep an eye on road and weather conditions. And don't leave broken down vehicle and walk out in blinding conditions and become disorientated. Have a Safe, cozy Saskatchewan winter!!

C.E.N. Fire Protection Assoc.

EATONIA FIRE BRIGADE

Thank you,

Community Services Co-operative

The municipalities comprising the CEN Fire Protection Association (RMs of Chesterfield and Newcombe, and the Town of Eatonia) wish to publicly acknowledge their appreciation of the Eatonia Community Services Co-operative's generous contribution for new Jaws of Life equipment. Last summer the co-operative donated just over $22,250 towards the Jaws of Life, which was then purchased. The Eatonia Fire Brigade is better able to respond to emergencies with new equipment such as this.

Yours truly,

CEN FIRE PROTECTION ASSOCIATION

EATONIA OASIS LIVING

November and December 2012 NEWS

It has been another busy two months at EOL! It is hard to believe that Christmas will soon be here and that the year is almost over. We enjoyed our usual activities of Baking, playing the Wii, Morning Exercises and Work Bee. Our weekly Bingos are still a favorite! We thank Evelyn Hoffman for volunteering her time to come and help with that. The residents enjoyed Games of Balloon Badminton and Guess the Word. There have also been quite a few games of Rummy played. We've worn out a deck of cards! We continue to have our Craft Sessions with Marie Smith. Evelyn has also been helping with this. Thanks to both of you.

At this time, there are 22 residents living at Eatonia Oasis Living. We welcome Ken Bennett, who is staying with us for respite care. We bid farewell to George Meyer who is now in Leader, and to Beatrice Gruhlke who has moved to Heritage Manor. We wish all the best to you both.

There has been a lot of entertainment at EOL in the last two months. Thank you to Richard Tumbach from Liebenthal for playing the accordion. We usually have a few up dancing when he is here! Laura Hayes has also been back to sing for us. The residents especially like it when she brings her children to sing with her. Thanks, Laura. Amy's Playschool children visited us on two occasions. They came in November to decorate cookies with the residents, then again in December to perform their Christmas Program. They are always welcome at EOL! Thank you for thinking of us! We had the pleasure of Melissa Hynd's music students performing their recital pieces. What a talented bunch of children we have in our community! Thank you to all of you as well! Melissa also brought her "Musical Munchkins" here for a class. The residents sure enjoyed the little ones!

A group of residents attended the Remembrance Day Program at the school. Thank you to Vicki Oomen for driving the Handi Van and thank you to the Eaton School for including us. There was also a group of residents who went out on the Handi Van for a Christmas Light tour. It was a cold night, but they said it was worth it. Thank you to Richard Adams who drove the van and to Vicki Oomen for volunteering to go with them. A big Thank you to the Eatonia District Health Care Foundation for providing the Handi Van for these outings!

The staff and residents have been getting into the Christmas spirit, putting up Christmas decorations. Thank you to Marie Smith, Evelyn Hoffman and the S.R.C. volunteers for helping with this. The Eaton School Choir is also going to sing for us this month. We are looking forward to that! Jessie Donald is back doing Work Experience at EOL. Good to see your smiling face, Jessie!

We celebrated many birthdays November and December. Happy Birthday to Ruby Nunweiler, Joyce Barr, Alice Osmachenko and Audrey Abbott who all celebrated birthdays in November. The Catholic Church ladies hosted the party and we enjoyed accordion music played by Richard Tumbach. A Come and Go Tea was also held for Alice Osmachenko who turned 100 years young! She was very pleased with all the people who came out to honor her! Happy Birthday to Annie Warrington, Ida Antony and Ken Bennett who celebrated birthdays in December. The United Church ladies hosted this party and we had the pleasure of listening to the beautiful singing of Audrey Newton. Thank you to everyone!

Once again, we need to thank all the ladies and gentlemen who provide our Weekly Church Services. Fulfilling the residents' spiritual needs is very important and we thank you for making time for us. If anyone would like to join us, we have a service every Wednesday afternoon and Mass every Thursday evening. A big thank you to the Laporte Quilters for making the beautiful aprons for the kitchen....Much appreciated!!!

Finally, a BIG thank you goes out to everyone who has made a donation of any kind to Eatonia Oasis Living. Your generosity, especially at this time of year, is overwhelming and appreciated by all the staff and residents. Thank you so much!

*WE WOULD LIKE TO WISH YOU A VERY, MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A BLESSED NEW YEAR...
FROM ALL OF US AT EATONIA OASIS LIVING*
