January 2017 Rec News

Happy New Year!

Arena:

The arena was very busy in December with many games and practices being held each week. There was free public skating and shinny offered over the holidays compliments of the Eatonia and District Recreation Board. We hope many people enjoyed some time on the ice with family and friends.

If you or a member of your family shinny/public skate and are not a member of minor hockey or skating club, please purchase a pass at the Recreation Office. We are offering passes for $25.00 and they are good for an individual or an entire family. We do use the honor system so please be sure and do your part. Thanks!

Head on over to the rink to take in some hockey action or enjoy the day at the arena for our annual Minor Hockey Day!

Game Schedule:

and seeing the Laporte Hall being used for Community Events.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the Eatonia Fire Department and all our neighbours for the great job in extinguishing a fire in our field this fall.

We appreciate your willingness to leave
your own harvest to come and help us.
Thanks to you all!
