CEMETERY BEE COMING IN MAY

With the countdown to July 1 underway, spring weather will inspire people to “spruce” up their yards in readiness for the anticipated influx of visitors to town.

We encourage a similar momentum at the cemetery as it too, will have many visitors. It is the enduring memorial for pioneers and heritage of the community. The oldest inscribed monument is dated 1919.

Check your family markers for ways to enhance their appearance to add to the presentation of the cemetery as a whole. A reminder that ornamentation not attached to a monument (flowers, wreaths, glassware, plaques) which hinders maintenance is not permitted as outlined in the town cemetery bylaw. A nice option for flowers and solar lights is the purchase of a vase to be fixed on the side of the monument. A metal wire saddle with florist foam works very well for an upright monument. The prairie wind is a constant so please keep it in mind!

Everyone is invited to help beautify Eatonia and District Cemetery for the Centennial celebration.

Watch for the date!

The elderly grandma always talked to the hens whenever she fed them. One day, her grandson asked, "Grandma, why do you talk to the chickens?" "I'm just trying to egg them on."
