Eatonia Oasis Living Newsletter

August 2024

Eatonia Oasis Living

How the month of August is almost gone is unbelievable! Time sure goes by quickly!

Some of the activities enjoyed by the residents include Bingo, Floor Curling, Sing-A-Long with Carol, and Art Classes with Rylan. A group of the residents are also enjoying Movies on Saturday afternoons! We had a blast at the Hawaiian Luau that the EOL Board hosted, along with the Toonie Bar and Music by Bev.

Church services are important to some of the residents, and we are grateful those who provide this.

The Birthday of the Month party was hosted by the CWL. Entertainment was spectacular! The music and dancers were enjoyed by all! We celebrated Anne Reinhardt and Vera Schmidt, along with Stephanie Kornelson, who's birthday was in July.

All birthdays are special, but Vera hit quite the milestone! She turned 100 years old! There was lots of celebrating and many visitors! The West Central Voice even did a story about her!

We will be painting birdhouses next week that were donated to us from Leader—Peggy Gizen donated the wood and Ray Hawkins cut the kits. Thanks for thinking of us!

A huge THANK YOU to our faithful volunteers!

The residents and the staff appreciate you so much for filling a huge void while we search for a new Activity Director!
